

EduPro Agency

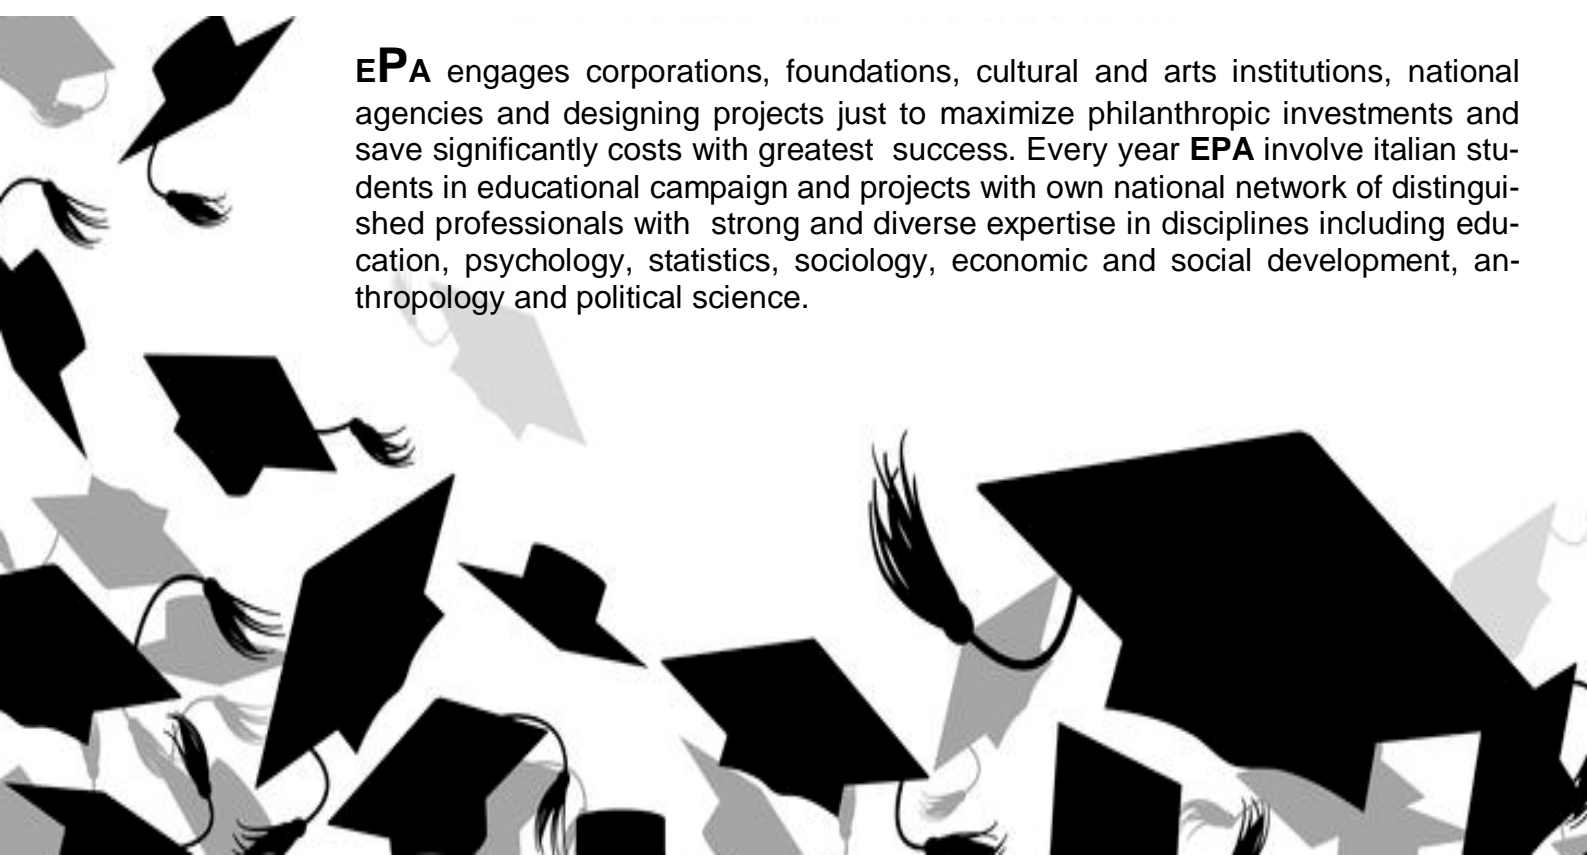

WHO ARE WE?

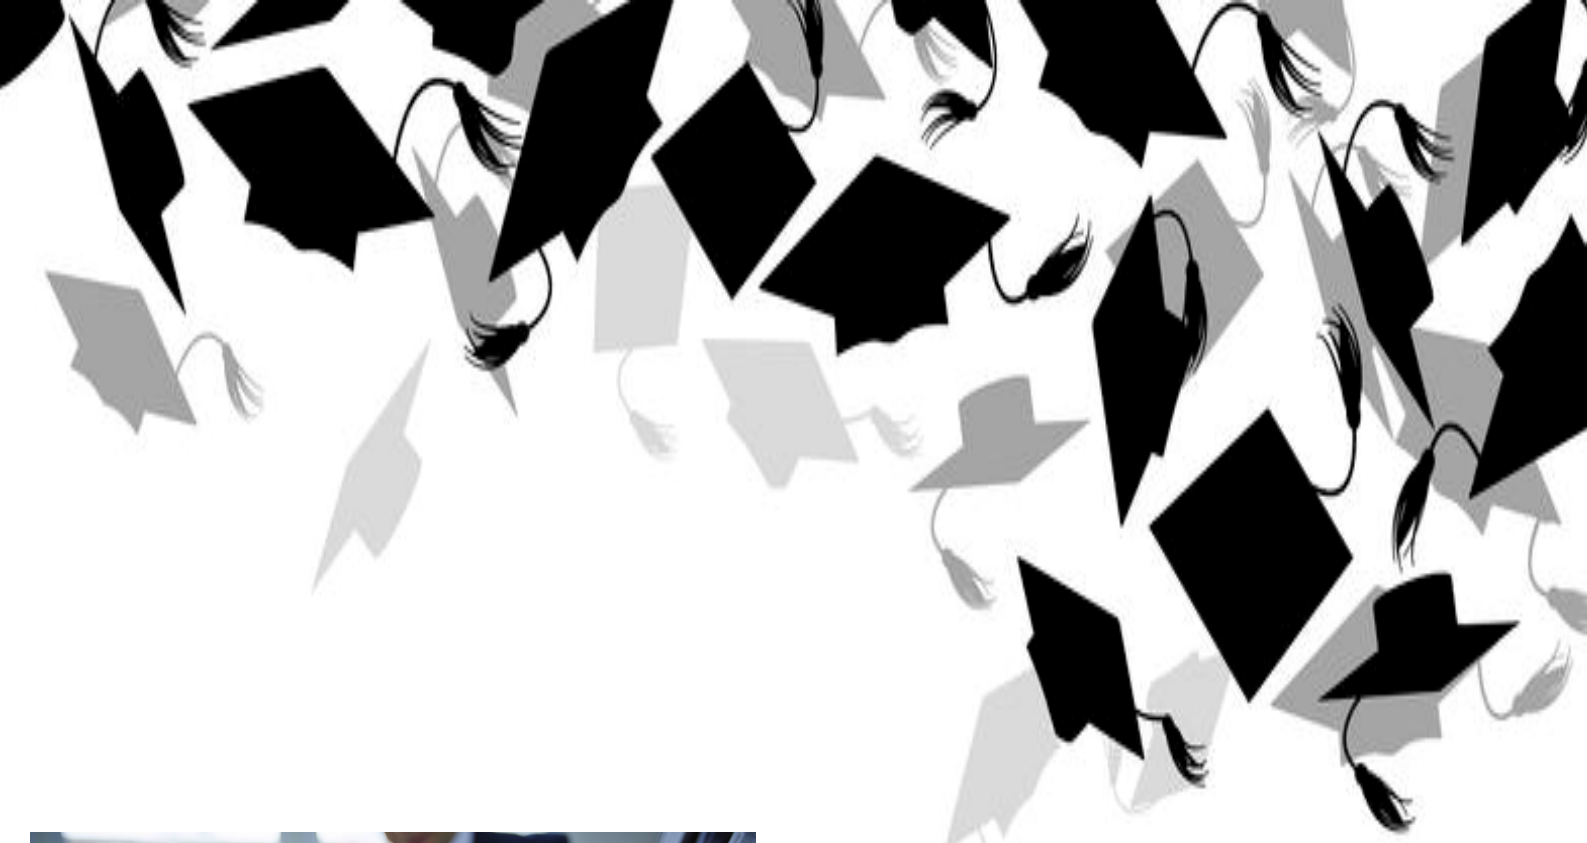

EduPro Agency “EPA”, is an european private company specialized in knowledge sharing, support and management of international educational projects.

Based on own long experience, EPA had a long and broad background in advanced learning technologies, including support, development, educational analysis and management roles.

EPA produces and disseminates proper knowledge, refine methods and stimulate practical application of research results on education and training of human resources, providing valuable resources and “state-of-art” training contents. EPA works in a range of important public and private stakeholders from universities and academic institutions to R&D institutes, international and state agencies, school systems, NGO and mutual financial companies, crowdfunding, etc.

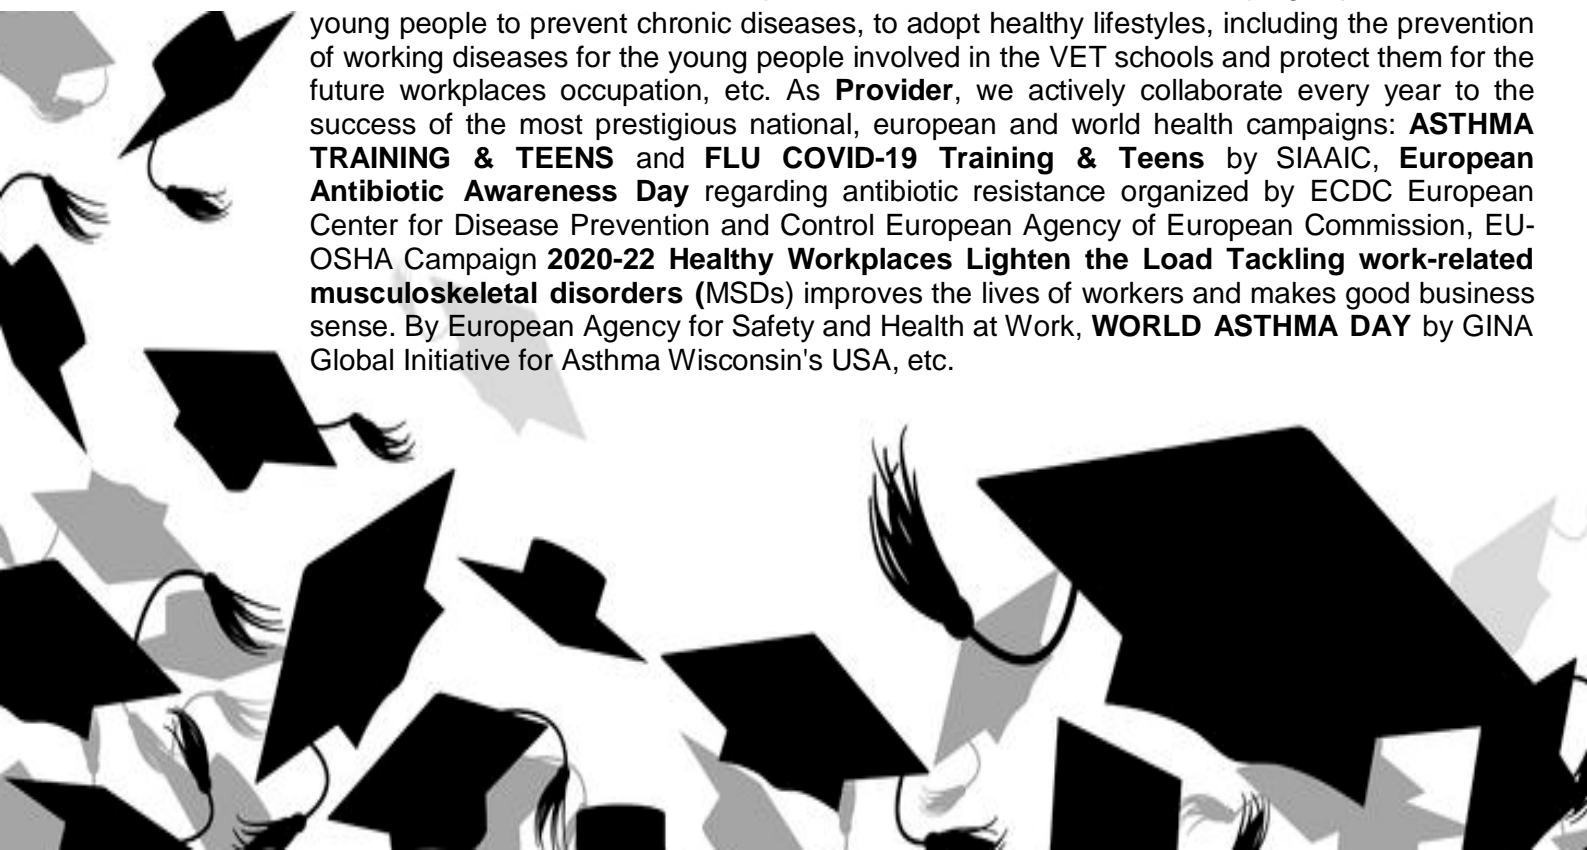

EPA engages corporations, foundations, cultural and arts institutions, national agencies and designing projects just to maximize philanthropic investments and save significantly costs with greatest success. Every year EPA involve italian students in educational campaign and projects with own national network of distinguished professionals with strong and diverse expertise in disciplines including education, psychology, statistics, sociology, economic and social development, anthropology and political science.

In the frame of Erasmus + EduPro Agency is a perfect partner able to capturing, structuring and leveraging the capacity just to motivate public and private stakeholders to co-operate, to stimulate young participants to be part of the project applied and approved.

EPA is a company with important professional resources to powerfully every projects managed or assigned. EPA is proud to be choiced as education provider by reputed and biggest international industries, public education stakeholders.

EPA is the Provider of most important medical and educational campaigns just to educate young people to prevent chronic diseases, to adopt healthy lifestyles, including the prevention of working diseases for the young people involved in the VET schools and protect them for the future workplaces occupation, etc. As Provider, we actively collaborate every year to the success of the most prestigious national, european and world health campaigns: ASTHMA TRAINING & TEENS and FLU COVID-19 Training & Teens by SIAAIC, European Antibiotic Awareness Day regarding antibiotic resistance organized by ECDC European Center for Disease Prevention and Control European Agency of European Commission, EU-OSHA Campaign 2020-22 Healthy Workplaces Lighten the Load Tackling work-related musculoskeletal disorders (MSDs) improves the lives of workers and makes good business sense. By European Agency for Safety and Health at Work, WORLD ASTHMA DAY by GINA Global Initiative for Asthma Wisconsin's USA, etc.

Our Life Long Learning Department is providing learning programs and experiences for adults and stimulating and enlightening educational performances with “appeal” just to facilitate the social inclusion in the community and find new job. We discover always new ideas for the training in a friendly environment with the use of modern social networks.

Considering that everyone can be the creator of own destiny, we encourage adults from the various social class to invest their capacities just to restart their formative and educational journey and realize their talents.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING

EPA is an education private agency delivering efficient services and professional training in the VET systems.

EPA is being challenged to adapt the courses following the rapid technological changing in the social and economic world. We can inspire and design tailored Vocational projects with capability and opportunity to create a worker with a tailored background.

ETP Entrepreneurial Training Program

Considering that everyone can be the creator of own destiny, we encourage adults from the various social class to invest their capacities just to restart their formative and educational journey and realize their talents.

EDUPRO AGENCY

Provider Campagna Medico Educazionale Asthma Training & Teens

educationalproagency@gmail.com eduproagency@gmail.com

<https://educationalproagency.wixsite.com/provider>

Tel. 0039 347 4865273 0039 041 2031728 / 041 8876589

Venezia ITALY

